

Abandoned Goods Management Process

Notice to collect goods and notice of intention to sell

(Issued in accordance with the Torts (interference with goods) Act 1977 sections 12(1) & 12(3))

To Whom It May Concern

The Goods (vessel 1964Y Feeling Fuelish and associated items, rigging etc) to which this notice refers has been left at Whitlingham Country Park Moorings without the consent of the Whitlingham Charitable Trust and the Landowner, Crown Point Estate.

To date we have no details relating to these Goods (vessel 1964Y Feeling Fuelish and associated items, rigging etc) or record of the owner. The Whitlingham Charitable Trust expects to be notified of your intentions regarding these Goods.

We, the Whitlingham Charitable Trust, Whitlingham Country Park, Whitlingham Lane, Trowse, Norwich, NR12 4TR give you notice as follows

The Goods (vessel 1964Y Feeling Fuelish and associated items, rigging etc) are to be removed and you are now under obligation to do so.

The Whitlingham Charitable Trust has displayed this notice in an attempt to identify the owner, to establish a contact and to arrange removal of the Goods. Please respond to this notice otherwise we will consider the Goods to have been abandoned.

Failure to contact the Whitlingham Charitable Trust may ultimately result in the disposal of the Goods.

At no time does the Whitlingham Charitable Trust take responsibility for ensuring the safety and security of the Goods when left on land under the management of Whitlingham Charitable Trust.

Please contact the Whitlingham Charitable Trust via the email below within 14 days of this notice.
